

APPLICATION FOR RELIEF FINANCE

Deadline Sunday, 28 March 2021

The relief fund for jazz musicians in South Africa is financed by the Levedo Foundation and administered by Pro Helvetia Johannesburg.

PERSONAL INFORMATION
Surname:
First name:
Gender:
Home address:
Suburb:
City:
Province:
Postal code:
Telephone number:
Email address:

FINANCIAL INFORMATION
What are your monthly expenses in relation to the items listed below?	Rand value
Rent/bond
Utilities: Water and electricity
Food and living costs
Vehicle and transportation
Life, medical, other insurances
Pension/retirement costs
Communication [internet and telephone]
Dependants [costs connected to childcare, schooling, maintenance, etc]
Total Expenses

Please provide a rough estimate of your income from various sources both before lockdown/COVID and then what your position is currently :	Rand value (before COVID)	Rand value (currently)
Music related income earned from gigs, teaching, recordings, streaming, royalties, and copyright, etc
Other non-music related income [any full-time, part-time, or freelance related work]:
Government or other grants (child, disability, pension, etc):
Total Income

Please provide at least one piece of evidence of your profile as a jazz musician (e.g., links to online documentation of your participation in a project, website, audio samples, recordings, videos etc). If you do not have any material available online, you could submit one piece of evidence as an attachment with your application form.

--

CONSENT AND AGREEMENT

Personal data provided for the purposes of the relief fund application will only be used to review individual applications. Applicants' data will not be shared with parties outside of the review panel, and you will not be subscribed to unsolicited marketing lists or databases. Applicants' personal information will not be shared with external or third parties.
Do you acknowledge that by submitting this application to the relief fund, you are giving permission for the information within your application to be accessed by the Levedo Foundation, Pro Helvetia Johannesburg and the review panel in order to assess your application?
By submitting this application do you acknowledge that you have read and understood the notes and instructions attached to this application form, and confirm that the information contained in the application form is true and correct?

FINAL NOTES:

Once you have completed this form, please ensure that you attach your CV as well as any other necessary material, to your email and send to application@prohelvetia.org.za. We will confirm receipt of your application, by email, normally within 5 working days of your submission.

Please note that the outcome of your application will be communicated to you by the end of April .

The decision communicated to you with respect to this application is final, and no further correspondence or discussion will be entered into.